Bad Craziness

D-A-D

Straight out of frame and bend out of shape
Nothing's real except the money that we made
Staring at the place where the two walls meet
Yeah, take a chair and have a seatWell, I should see it as a brand new start
But I'm all Adam's apple and f-f-f-fast beatin' heart
My nerves they twist and they jerk
See no drugs will do the workAnd I'll tell you for free how I started stopped bein' me
Because you won't believe what I believe when I'm alone
Bad craziness
I got to tie my head to the TV and unplug the phone
Bad crazinessSee the shadows dancing' on the ceiling
Say, do you hear what I hear?
Like a TV no one watches
My head's filled with the ace and overmuchesWalking trails on my living room floor
I feel that life won't be the same as before
Like an explorer lookin' for help, I would be happy to find myself
And join the temple of hope to keep my balance on this globe'Coz you won't believe what I believe when I'm alone
Bad craziness
I got to tie my head to the TV and unplug the phone
Bad crazinessI had two feet on the ground, now I'm almost gone
B-b-b-bad craziness
'Coz you won't believe what I believe when I'm alone
Bad crazinessIt's a bird, no a plane, it's a man insaneYou won't believe what I believe when I'm alone
Bad craziness
I got to tie my face to the TV and unplug the phone
Bad crazinessI had two feet on the ground, now I'm almost gone
B-b-b-bad craziness
You know you won't believe what I believe when I'm alone
Bad crazinessBad craziness
Bad craziness
Anything for a good night's sleep
(Bad craziness)
I'm counting nightmares instead of sheep
(Bad craziness)
Because you won't believe what I believe when I'm alone
