I'm So Alone

Tug-Of-War

i'm so alone
i don't have no home so when you gonna bring your sweet love on home to mered mary come from the ground she take away everything she make everybody feel high she let me downi said hooooooooooo nanana etc.well you can live your life inside of the bong where you feel that nothing's wrong and tell the ones you love they should stop giving maybe your life ain't worth living so you got a lot of problems to work out, man let me tell you, i've read this book before and in the end the good guys die so get up, get up get out of you chair hold your head up high and cut your hair
i know what your thinking but you just have to do it whatever makes you happy get right to itso you think you've really got it made don't you understand that there is much more at stake how long do you think you can live like this?well there is only one thing left to do step back, reflect and think things through compare yourself to me, im just like you[chorus]days come in on me like monsters of my drug abuse and all I wanna do is hit the bongwell im walking down the streets of life i don't know where to go which way do i turn i don't really know mass confusion fills my mind and everything hurtsdays come in on me like monsters of my drug abuse and all i wanna do is have some fun

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/