

Hellracer

Vanilla Ninja

He was there in the shadow
Saw her with the other man
Kissing him in the twilight
And he felt the tears of hate and rage again
She had sworn she would love him
But she proved to be a bitch
So he started his engine and way deep inside,
The devil just turned on the switch
Hellracer - lookin' for chaos
Where will you arrive?
Ridin' the dark night
Feelin' apartheid
In destiny and life
Get on
Hellracer - going for trouble
Violence in your veins
Let the speed thrill you
Nothin' will kill you
Just tear away the chains
And you'll be free
You'll be free
Hellracer! Hellracer!
As he followed the white line
Felt the heat of burning tire
In his rearview mirror
He could see her laugh - her eyes on fire
In the morning they found him
Heaven was his last exile
His body was broken - his heart was smashed
But on his face there was a smile
Go on
Hellracer - lookin' for chaos
Where will you arrive
Ridin' the dark night
Feelin' apartheid
In destiny and life
Get on
Hellracer - going for trouble
Violence in your veins
Let the speed thrill you
Just tear away the chains
And you'll be free
You'll be free
