Checkmate In Red

Brainstorm

So empty inside and I'm loosin' my pride Thrill exploding out of meDown to the ground and my head's full o'sound
No innocence betweenA victim of circumstance Never had a chance
Sacrificed without a fightCarry on with this lie
No matter how hard I try Suffering one last timeand you don't know I'll touch and add you to my fame Welcome to my wonderlandI'll never understand why Have I lived before
The illness and lies
The virus never diesRain may fall 'round me
I can't drawn me out It's my last final step Checkmate in redTrying to make a stand, trying to hold a hand as my bridges burn to the ground I violate and I think I feel hate as I stare my demons downI kept you under the sun Away from the cold
I sheltered you from the storm
The evil alive, no guiding, no hide
I see the look insideMy magic hand Will strike you down and rule the land
I'll take the crown
