Human

Dismantled

Deluded whispers
Burned out memories reprise
The silent resentment
Sinking over vacant eyes

The skyline ruptures
Past the barriers of sight
Inverting silence
Into streams of tainted fright

Climb into your concrete hole
Forget this
Deep inside the truth awakens
Pulling you away

Hey human
Do you see the grid expanding
Hey human
Do you hear the static rains washing your blood away
You say you want to live this life forever
Forever is as distant as your stars
