Different Worlds - Different Times

Evidence One

I've been drinkin' too much been smokin' too much, too but this red wine feels alright, feels alright even without youYou said, our love was perfect
I didn't do no wrongs
I know that it's all worth it
But I never thought, I had to be this strongHave we been talkin' too much?
Did I never say the words'
Still the touch of your hand
Paralizes and hurtsStranded on Different Worlds
Living in Different Times
Living in Different Worlds - living in Different...I should have been more patient
I should have been more kind
You always seemed to show me
Everything feels alrightMaybe, you've had your doubts
Maybe, it's all in your head
I won't take back what I did,
And I won't take back all the things I saidI thought that our love was worth it worth every fuzz and fight
I thought we'd stay together
Now I see, our love was way outta sightStranded on Different Worlds
Living in Different Times
Living in Different Worlds
Living in Different Times[REPEAT]Stranded on Different Worlds
Living in Different Worlds
Living in Different Times
Stranded on Different Worlds
Living in Different Times
Living in Different Worlds
Living in Different Times
