Between You And Me

Hilary Duff

You can call it what you want
But I'm not playing games
We're both a part of the same story
Not on the same pageAnd I see you standing there
With that dirty little stare
Well, it freaks me out inside
So maybe you should just bewareMy love is not up for negotiation
'Hello' doesn't mean an open invitation
Don't take it personally 'cause
You and me, we're wrongSo move on
Move on, move onI'm not saying you're not nice
Let me give you some advice
There's a girl across the room
Who'd kill to be with you tonightShe's been looking over here
And she's made it pretty clear
So don't lose your chance with her
By trying to get so damn near meMy love is not up for negotiation
'Hello' doesn't mean an open invitation
Don't take it personally 'cause
You and me we're wrongSo move on
So move onOh, here he comes
He never gets the hints, never gets the hints
That I've given himOh, there he goes
He's never gonna win, never gonna win
He doesn't even know who he's trying to get withMy love is not up for negotiation
'Hello' doesn't mean an open invitation
Don't take it personally 'cause
You and me we're wrongSo move on
Move on, move on
Move on
Move on, move on
