

Beautiful

Noel Gourdin

I've called you hot girl, sweet thang, and gold digger*
I've called you chicken head, and shawty, or hey there thick 'ems
I've been disrespecting you, with the same ol lame excuse,
That I've been talking this way for so long girl
But that don't make it right to call you
Dime piece, my jump off, or my baby momma
I've called you the b word, the h word or anything else I wanna
And the set reality is you don't hear this just from me, and everywhere you go
All day long girl, and that's just wrong girl. so from now on I'll only call you

Beautiful, beautiful from head to toe you are (yeah)
Beautiful, that's the piece that's done by the hands of god (yeah)
Beautiful, women even though your life gets hard
Here's a song just to let you know what you are beau-ti-ful

Girl you are a princess a goddess and flesh of my flesh
You're majestic, precious the best of the best
The lord created you, cause he looked at men and knew that
We could never make it on our own girl. and I thank god each day for making
You so soft, so sweet like a fresh strawberry
I want to bit ya

Squeeze ya, your love is necessary, for me to be great as I am
I need you in my corner, and I'm gonna make sure you know that you're my treasure
And I'm so much better. so from now on I'll only call you

Beautiful, beautiful from head to toe you are (so beautiful)
Beautiful, that's the piece that's done by the hands of god (your such a beautiful women)
Beautiful, women even though your life gets hard
Here's a song just to let you know what you are beau-ti-ful

I apologies for the mistakes for so many guys, who don't know a women's worth at all
They treat you like those girls they see on videos, and on magazines and that's not really who you are
And this might be news to you, but its true your

Beautiful, beautiful from head to toe you are (yeah)
Beautiful, that's the piece that's done by the hands of god (yeah)
Beautiful, women even though your life gets hard

Beautiful, beautiful from head to toe you are (yeah)

Beautiful, that's the piece that's done by the hands of god (yeah)

Beautiful, women even though your life gets hard
