

Beautiful World

Carolina Liar

Here it comes in the morning
I'm just trying to forget
Keep it real, keep it simple
And somehow just get out of bed
And this city is endless
I'm as cold as its stone
Yeah this city is endless
And I'm, I'm walking alone
Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets, there's no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
I wanna ask for direction
But I don't dare to disturb
I got a thing with affections
Yeah, and that's why I'm walking alone
Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets, there's no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
Here it comes in the morning
Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets, there's no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
(Yeah, it's a beautiful world)
La la la la
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
