Don't Make Love So Hard

The Good Life

You said you're a wreck, you get so upset You said that you'd ruin everything the first chance you get But your chances come day after day as I drunkenly slander your name Is it possible you've become fond of the lushes we've become?
Don't make love so hardYou said that's enough, you've been acting so bored
You said it's too much You can't take anymore but day after day that I'm gone You anxiously wait for that call it's almost as if you would miss me if I never returned at all...
Don't make love so hardI sit at the bar, you're off playing pool still you keep a close eye on which girls I've been talking to..
But day after day stumbles by and I've yet to abandon your side has jealousy's venomous dart poisoned the well of your heart?
Don't make love so hardLa, la, la, la,
La, la, la, la - I love you
