Boys To Men

New Edition

Growing up can be a pain
You're not an man until you come of age
We've given up our teenage years
In the effort to pursue our careerWho assumes responsibility
Of having to support our families
Who's protecting us from harm
Is there anyone around
That we can trustSo we search for answers to our questions
Looking for answers
No answers but we're taught a lesson everytime
Through mistakes we've learned to gather wisdom
Life's responsibility falls in our handsKeep on learning
Keep on growing
'Cause wisdom helps us understand
We're maturing
Without knowing
These are the things that change boys to menOh the goals we set may exceed reality
'Cause failure always a possibility
Who can tell us that we're wrong
It's up to us to figure out
What life is all aboutSo we search for answers to questions
Looking for the answers
No answers but we're taught a lesson everytime
Through mistakes we've learned to gather wisdom
'Cause wisdom helps us see our responsibility.
