If the Shoe Fits..

Latia

I know there are times, that I
Seem like I donâ€™t, care like I used to, do what I used to do
But you know you play around, now youâ€™re stuck canâ€™t figure it out
Donâ€™t know the way you just see the clouds
Weâ€™re getting older the pressure is on now

I know itâ€™s different from your neck of the woods
Be a supportive woman to you when I wish I couldâ€™ve
Your mother, your mother she held it down when she shouldâ€™ve
But I think you should work on you

There isnâ€™t no one there isnâ€™t no one
There isnâ€™t anyone Iâ€™ll love like you
There is nobody baby, that Iâ€™m gonna love like you
Iâ€™m gonna love like you

I know youâ€™re tryin, Iâ€™d be lyin if I said you werenâ€™t but weâ€™re so divided
Cause Iâ€™m in a rush and youâ€™re playin catch up
And now you wanna rest up but we are out of time outs

But you know you play around, now youâ€™re stuck canâ€™t figure it out
Donâ€™t know the way you just the see clouds
Weâ€™re getting older the pressure is on now

We were in school you were so cool breakin the rules
What did you do with the other you, made all my shows
This isnâ€™t you, get back to who you were when you were that good itâ€™s true
I think you should work on you

There isnâ€™t no one there isnâ€™t no one
There isnâ€™t anyone Iâ€™ll love like you
There is nobody baby, that Iâ€™m gonna love like you
Iâ€™m gonna love like you

Pressure to pressure x10
Oh nah nah
