Universal

Slut

wee universal and wee blessed wee grown up well I must confess which makes us better than the rest wee always happy and amused wee open-minded while we chose wee intellectual confused - wee so confused wee hungry - though we have to eat wee thirsty - we can find no sleep wee angry - though wee looking sweet we stay untouchable and strange and though we try to make things change wee far too boneless to arrange we look so peaceful all the time and though wee dangerously unkind wee used to look like we don mind - like we don mind wee nameless - though we have a home wee painless - and wee all alone wee aimless - though we have to roam wee universal wee universal wee universal so universal - and it will always be like this we stay indifferent and wee blessed we think wee better than the rest wee always thoughtful and depressed wee nameless - though we have a home wee painless - and wee all alone wee aimless - though we have to roam wee universal wee universal wee universal just universal
