Invade My Soul (Edit Version)

By the Tree

Searching for truth to hold onto
You're looking for a reason
So much confusion, the world is crying out
It's time for me to speak aloud
I will never silent, can never tamed
I will always speak Your nameYou invade my soul
Lord take control
I'm coming back, coming back tooYou invade my soul
Lord take control
I'm coming back, coming back tooThrow away your sadness and let it go
Let the oil of gladness take control
Give Him your burdens, cast your cares
He died for you, He'll always be thereYou invade my soul
Lord take control
I'm coming back, coming back tooYou, your always there
I remember you, you remember me
I live in YouHoly are you, worthy are you
You're worthy of the praise I bring to You
I lift my voice to worship You
Then you come, then you come
