Colossal Rains

Paradise Lost

Into a depth of haze,
I'll see you dead
The colossal rains flow
Like the breeze
A sheltered scenery
As the arms outstrtch for me
You'll never walk again(In a sorry sea of pale sound uplifting here, dark waters flow free through the achways of silent dreams)Brought back from centuries, Creation seen
The colossal rains
Mortal spirits drained
Can this be real,
What the frozen rains reveal You'll never walk again(hear cries, way of reach and shallow the silver breathes, the sun wakes the sleeping heat and drowns in a mass disease)
