

Did You Recognize My Love?

Warren Zanes

Love was kinda mean to me walked upon my heart and this town was just a scene to me 'til you came along and broke down walls you wereshining like a misplaced star then it was just a dream to me whenever you walked by I'd kinda freeze but behind that frozen face you'd see I was flying where I used to crawl over buildings over miles of malls did you recognize my love? In the city sometimes these things pass us by but did you recognize my love? sounds silly, I was down oneblock and up one mile and I caught you shining like a misplaced star first you were on my block then you were on my mind when you showed up in town you set a world on
