If You Leave

Kumbia Kings

I just can't believe it
What you telling me right now
After all that we've been through
Tell me how could this be the end
I just don't understandI can't believe the words you're telling me
You say you're not in love, no more and you have to leave
What did I do to make you feel this way?
Please tell me now what can I do to make you stayOh girl, don't abandon me, don't you take your love from me
Girl, don't you know that girl without you, I'll go crazy?
Please girl, don't say good-bye, don't make me break down and cry
Oh, you're my everythingGirl, if you leave then tell me, what am I suppose to do?
Where do I go from here with out the love of you?
Without you in my life, what kind of life would that be?
I'm begging you to stay, so don't you take your love from meI can't go on without you here with me
I really need you, I'm in pain, girl can't you see
How much love I truly have for you?
How could you do this to me tell me what can I doOh girl, don't abandon me, don't you take your love from me
'Cause don't you know that girl without you, I'll go crazy?
Please girl, don't say good-bye, don't make me break down and cry
You're my everythingGirl, if you leave then tell me, what am I suppose to do?
Where do I go from here with out the love of you
Without you in my life, what kind of life would that be?
I'm begging you to stay, so don't you take your love from meBaby, look at all the things we have been through
Then look into my eyes girl and see it's you that I am into
You know that when I met you that I changed my life
So that's why I bought you ice then made you wifeTook you on first cause flights
Give you kiss to make up the fights, know that I was alright
Let your love get the best of me
'Cause sleeping without you next to meGive you all my G's and now you want to up and leave
Got me down on bed and knee and I'm begging please to hold tight
Instead of wondering why they say that I man is supposed to cry
Just rub my eyesAnd let you know I need you in my life
Just so I can make things right, did everything you told me to
Can't help her get close to you
So if you leave what am I suppose to doGirl, if you leave then tell me, what am I suppose to do?
Where do I go from here with out the love of you?
Without you in my life, what kind of life would that be?
I'm begging you to stay, so don't you take your love from meGirl, if you leave then tell me, what am I suppose to do?

Where do I go from here with out the love of you?
Without you in my life, what kind of life would that be?
I'm begging you to stay, so don't you take your love from me
