

You're Not Here Anymore

Judith Owen

Here comes that day again
Here comes that day again
The day I remember
'Cause it's a cold day in December
And I'm flying home
And inside I know that(Chorus)
You're not here anymore
And you won't come
When I call your name out
And I've tried so hard to ignore it but
Today I know itHere comes the pain again
Here comes the pain again
And as we start to touchdown
My tears fall freely on the ground
And people try to help me
But how can I explain that(Chorus)And everybody misses someone That's just the way that life is
And everybody yearns for something,
A last look
A last Kiss(Chorus)
