

Skinned Knees

Mortimer Nova

a little song before you go to sleep this fire you've sparked in me will burn me alive a vertigo, the milquetoast, digress looks like i'll be drowning alone i'm all alone in my cell while you go trapped in a flood, sink alive, pray to die attention, please be still, say no more attention, there's no love, anymore i'll wait for tomorrow to shave my head and start over hold my breath and fall backwards, will you catch me float over belly up and take me home i can't forgive you until the day we are flawless just the way you speak drops me to my knees, skinned knees
