

Grace master

Kate Havnevik

Im on my knees
Only memories
I left for me to holdDont know how
But Ill get by
Slowly pull myself together(Im get through this)Theres no escape
So keep me save
This feels so unrealNothing comes easily
Fill this empty space
Nothing is like it seems
Turn my grieve to graceI feel the cold
Loneliness unfold
Like from another worldCome what may
I wont fade away
But I know I might changeNothing comes easily
Fill this empty space
Nothing is like it was
Turn my grieve to graceNothing comes easily
When do I regain?
Nothing can bring me peace
Ive lost everything
I just wanna feel your embrace(I love you)
