

Fisticuffs In Frederick Street

Toy Dolls

Frederick Street was on the news tonight outside Fosters club had been a fight and everytime you go to dig the beat you will hear a yelp and somebody shouting for help...

CHORUS:

Hello, hello, hello, hello, who's down there?
who's down there?

Hello, hello, hello, hello, who's down there?
who's down there?

in the fisticuffs in Frederick Street
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna be, you don't wanna be,
we don't wanna be there..

Fosters club was full up to the brim everybody risking life and limb and just to go and pose at the disco but posing wasn't easy and the D.J.
he got queasy, blow by blow...

CHORUS

Everything's silent on Frederick Street a lonely policeman walks the beat... before long everybody'll know that Fosters club is not the place to go unless you want your head kicking in
you will hear a yelp and somebody shouting for help...
