

You're Gonna Miss Me

Tamika Dunning

We've been breaking up so long
Nothing seems to work
We used to read each other's minds
We were happy all the time
We could forgive so quick
And make up so fast we didn't know who was wrong,
No, no, no, noChorus
But now I know the truth will she love you like I do
Will she be there for you be as faithful to you
You're gonna miss me
You're gonna miss me, You're gonna miss me
You're gonna miss me, Yeah yeah yeah
You're gonna miss me, You're gonna miss me
You're gonna miss me, Yeah yeah yeahWell you say I'm leaving you
Well you left me long ago
Now you're angry I'm gone
But it didn't bring you home
You say how can I leave you all alone
When I was up all night
It didn't matter at all
You're Gonna miss meChorus
