

Damn It Feels Good To Be A Taylor

Wiz Khalifa

yeeh

it's young Khalifa man, i know i say that before every song but that's really actually who the fuck I am so uh uh

to rock camo shorts, chuck tee and smoke papers weed comin' in all flavors fall up in the spot as long as the champagnes there couple pretty hoes I don't know their name here smell the weed, see two fingers know my gang near yeh you ballin' but they ain't cheer i guess they tired of rootin' for the same players real niggas run up on me at my shows, hoes show me love, promoters give me plane fare, i'm somewhere at the top i'm planning on stayin' there mouth full of kush ridin' in my favorite pair and this is for anyone who scene a nigga vision from the begining realize that you made it clear laugh now fly later, damn it feels good to be a taylorand that's what it is man, taylor gang or die

so ya'll just catchin' on it's all good you know i fucks with all my taylors taylor gang world wide you know i had to do something strictly for the fans i'm workin' on my album right now i made kush and orange juice go through the roof i'm smokin' some sour kushi'm smokin' one got another one rolled,

(it's really go sour)

seein' tickets to every show so they won't sleep till we let them know (so roll up, you know)

now they repin' taylor gang everywhere we go

(do what we do)

i'm smokin' one got another one rolled,

(keep it Taylor man)

(2010)

they won't sleep till we let them know

(this years almost over so next year) now they repin' taylor gang everywhere we gowe just gonna' be doin' the same shit but like on a higher level
