

Meltdown

Loverboy

We're headin' for a meltdown
There's gonna be a breakdown
Before we have a countdown
We better have a shakedown
You treat me bad, you leave me cold
You got me guessin', so I've been told
You took our love, threw it away
Now start talkin', before it's too late
For the meltdown
There's gonna be a breakdown
Before we have a countdown
We better have a shakedown
Take it or leave it, it's all the same
Now either way, it's a cryin' shame
You say you care, it doesn't show

This could be love, but I guess we'll never know
And what can I say?
And what should I do
When all along
I was thinkin' of you?
A meltdown, ooh
A meltdown, yeah
We're headin' for a meltdown
There's gonna be a breakdown
Before we have a countdown
We better have a shake, shake, shakedown
We're headin' for a meltdown
We're headin' for a meltdown
