You'll Always Be Beautiful

Blake Shelton

You always get dolled up for your party
Good thing your birthday only comes once a year
'Cause you always forget that you're so small
You can't take all that alcohol
And you wind up over my shoulder and into the car
But you'll always be beautiful
You'll always be beautiful to me
And I don't care if your hair's a mess from the night before
Your headaches and your fussin' and cussin' the sun
The makeup you had on your face
Is now all over your pillow case
And you're curled up under the covers into a ball

But you'll always be beautiful
You'll always be beautiful to me
So, baby, don't you ever doubt
When father time starts drawing out
Those lines around your eyes
'Cause you'll always be
Yeah, you'll always be beautiful
You'll always be beautiful to me
Ya you'll always be
Always beautiful
Beautiful to me
