High on Fire

Serve the shadows of mountain peaks
Under the glass mirrored skies
Sing the psalms of the wailing winds
The entrance seer will provide Stars reveal the tattered map
A land cursed in time
So speaks the words of our challenger
Seeking the ultimate prize Speaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakened Speaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakened Fear is invoked by your trembling hands
The foe is deadly and wise
A sight that's filled the eyes of mighty men
The very cost of their lives Take the aim of the shimmering blade
The vulnerable spot is precise
Swift is the hand of the waking beast
Crown of two worlds is the prize Speaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakened Speaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakened Blood will spill on the warrior's feet
Casting the enemy aside
Exalting the hero for evermore
Steps to the throne of the eyes Serve the shadows of mountain peaks
Under the glass mirrored skies
Sing the psalms of the wailing winds
The entrance seer will provide
