

Wild Fire Woman (Remastered Version)

Bad Company

I wanna drive a car way across the border
She's the only one, she keep my mind in order
I'm not a bad man, but I know where I stand
If I had the luck, gotta have your love in my hand
(Yeah, I'm coming for it, baby) Takes a good man, yeah, to know a good woman
I'm not such a good man as a woman needs a-loving
I'm a-driving down the highway, getting closer to your love
I'm going pretty fast now, but it ain't fast enough, listen Wild fire shooting through my veins
Burn the fever to my brain
Wild fire woman, something you got
I start to shiver when you do that, do that baby Well, it takes a good man to know a good woman
I'm not such a good man as a woman needs a-loving
So I'm a-flying up the Freeway, ain't nothing in sight
You know it takes a lot of loving to keep me driving all night Wild fire shooting through my veins
Burn the fever to my brain
Wild fire woman, something you got
I start to shiver when you do that, do that baby Wild fire shooting through my veins
Burn the fever to my brain
Wild fire woman, something you got
I start to shiver when you do that Wild fire shooting through my veins
Burn the fever to my brain
Wild fire woman, something you got
I start to shiver when you do that, do that baby Do that, do that baby
I start to shiver and shake
I just can't wait, I start to shiver and shake
I just can't wait, I start to shiver and shake I, Lordy, I just can't wait
Driving down the highway, yeah, wow
Oh, baby, take a good loving to keep me driving all night
I'm a-driving all night, oh, yeah Straight on down the highway
Straight on down the highway
Wow, straight on down the highway, yeah
