

Invincible

Jesse McCartney

I said don't do it babe
Said it ain't worth it babe
But you did it anyway

Four or five drinks and you were on your waySeptember 1st, 2003

It took the life right out of me
Hung up the phone and raced out the door
BrokenI tried to believe that it wasn't true
But in my heart I always knew

That being the life of the party would catch up to youYour family was waiting and crying
For three damn hoursI said don't do it babe

Said it ain't worth it babe
But you did it anyway

Four or five drinks and you were on your wayEverything's cool on the straight away

But you took that turn
Doing eighty-five in a thirty-five

Why babe?Every time I'm home, I pass that road
Driving alone and the street feels cold

Seeing your face, yeah, it's haunting meMy mind goes crazy tryin' to figure out
Just where you'd be four years from now

And what you were thinking when the lights came downThe doctors were trying to save you
For three damn hoursI said don't do it babe

Said it ain't worth it babe
But you did it anyway

Four or five drinks and you were on your wayEverything's cool on the straight away

But you took that turn
Doing eighty-five in a thirty-five

Why babe?Whoever said that life was fair
When you live without a care

When you're invincible, when you're invincible

When you're invincible who thinks about leaving when you're livin'I said don't do it babe
Said it ain't worth it babe

But you did it anyway

Four or five drinks and you were on your wayEverything's cool on the straight away

But you took that turn

Doing eighty-five in a thirty-fiveI said don't do it babe
Said it ain't worth it babe
But you did it anyway

Four or five drinks and you were on your way
