I don't know where to go
'Cause I know where to go
Well, I know where not to go
'Cause I know where to goTonight we're gonna find our lover
Tonight we're gonna find our manRiding six white horses
Wearing them pressed blue jeans
Gonna behead the king
And give the queen everything'Cause tonight we're gonna find our lover
'Cause tonight we're gonna find our man
We're gonna find ourWe don't know where to go
We know where to go
We don't know what to do
We know what to doWe don't know where to go
We know where to go
We don't know anymoreI know I look high
But I'm just free dancing
I know I look hypnotized
But I'm just table tapping'Cause tonight we ain't gonna find our lovers
Tonight we ain't gonna find our manWe don't know where to go
We know where to go
We don't know what to do
We know what to doWe don't know where to go
We know where to go
We don't know anymore
We don't know anymore
