Demons Dance Alone

The Residents

You can know a needle's eye
Or a hungry baby's cry
But no one knows that demons dance aloneSilver linings came and went
When I was an innocent
Never knowing demons dance aloneBut somehow I was seduced
And my innocence reduced
By a demon that became my ownKnowingly I followed it
I took the hook and swallowed it
Until I found it dancing in my homeTerrified I tried to quit
But I need the taste of shit
Like a dancing demon needs a homeI had hoped to fill my years with
More than melancholy tears
But the demon makes me dance alone
