Butcher, Faker, Policy Maker

Fireball Ministry

So long, consider me commuted
Stepped out of the rat race
Not wrong, wouldn't have admitted
Not really a bad place
Stay strong, my weakness is forgiven
Still new to the whole scene
Long gone, didn't think i'd give in
Real easy to come cleanAll signs pointed down the same line
The last step is the hardest
Even though it was shy of a load
You still held it in contestIt seems all has been lost
Butcher faker policy maker
Once all the rivers are crossed
Butcher faker policy makerAbout time, taking what is needed
Won't end the confusion
In line hating how they're treated
A simple illusion all wrong
Take it to the limit
Just needed a game plan
So long, consider me committed
Not really a big fanAll signs pointed down the same road
The first step is the hardest
Just waiting for it to explode
So you can all protestIt seems all has been lost
Butcher faker policy maker
Once all the rivers are crossed
Butcher faker policy makerAll signs pointed down the same line
The last step is the hardest
Even though it was shy of a load
You still held it in contestIt seems all has been lost
Butcher faker policy maker
Once all the rivers are crossed
Butcher faker policy maker
