

Brickwork III (Song for the Innocent T5)

Pain of Salvation

[Music & Lyrics by Daniel Gildenlow] This world is what we can give Scarred from the way we lived
All those dreams we shared for you
How I wish they could come true We dreamed of a world in peace
But killed for a life of ease
Now we leave the wounds for you
What else can the dying do?
