Someone's Out To Get Me

Steve Holy

I get this feeling I?m being followed
And I feel the eyes of a stranger watching me
And my body is trembling all over
As I feel the hand of someone touching me
Well, someone?s out to get me tonight
And if I?m caught, I don?t think, I?ll put up much of a fight
Someone?s got their arms around me holding on so tight
And if that someone gets her way
I?ll be hers tonight
Well, I thought I was alone when I walked into this room
But I sense there?s someone else by the smell of sweet perfume
And her voice is softly whispering deep into my ear
Saying all the things I want to hear
Well, someone?s out to get me tonight
And if I?m caught, I don?t think, I?ll put up much of a fight
Someone?s got their arms around me holding on so tight
And if that someone gets her way
I?ll be hers tonight
Well I know, I should not be out on my own this late at night
I guess, I?m looking for that something missing in my life
But it?s too late now, there?s no escape
She?s got me in her sight
Someone?s gonna get me tonight
Well, someone?s out to get me tonight
And if I?m caught, I don?t think, I?ll put up much of a fight
Someone?s got their arms around me holding on so tight
And if that someone gets her way
I?ll be hers tonight
Yeah, if that someone gets her way
I?ll be hers tonight
I?ll be hers tonight
