You Say You Care

John Coltrane

You say you care,
And all at once a million roses
Poor their perfume on the air.
You say you care,
And you put words to what
The whipple wheels are singing everywhere
How sweet, how strange
That all my loneliness should change
Into the loveliness we share.
If you are there,
No hill would be too high
And darling i would even fly the sea,
Just to hear you say,
You care for me
