Nuclear War

New Politics

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Look around, I feel blessed,
This is Earth as we know best.
Heavenly, I feel praised,
Hold this to my dying day.
I've seen killers on the streets,
Bullets fired to the beat.
I've seen business men deceive,
For the power, for the money and the greed.
All this pain surrounding us,
All this joy inside of us,
I feel hate, I feel love,
We've been blessed by God above.Hold me down don't let me breathe.
Take it all in front of me.
Rape it all and watch it bleed.
Come on, come on!Here comes the enemy!
I'm a walking psycho!
Bring out your armies!
Let's start a f*cking nuclear war!Ashes to ashes one day we'll all fall to dust.
There will be rain in the skies to wash away the rust.
There's a war in front of me,
We're all crying out for peace,
A depression at its peak,
And they're the ones who lead?
Am I the enemy? (Enemy)
Am I the enemy? (Am I the enemy?)
Am I the enemy? (Enemy)
Am I the enemy?Hold me down don't let me breathe.
Take it all in front of me.
Rape it all and watch it bleed.
Come on, come on!Here comes the enemy!
I'm a walking psycho!
Bring out your armies!

Let's start a f*cking nuclear war!We're burning away, burning away,
Losing our souls in outer space,
Lookin' down 3,000 miles, away.
It's getting too dark to see and I'm starting to freeze.
I'm laughing at the world that I used to see.
I used to see-(AHHH!)Here comes the enemy!
I'm a walking psycho!
Bring out your armies!
So I can start a nuclear war!Here comes the enemy!
Let's end this with a nuclear war!Bring out your armies,
Let's end this with a nuclear war!
Let's end this f*ckin' nuclear war...Boom.
