When Things Explode (feat. Ian Astbury)

UNKLE

Your skull froze little lives
In shadows where you hide
A life that was designed
You've been cheated, oh so blindYou laid it on the line
These twisted words of time
And how your spirit shines
I wish that you were mineYeah, lately
I know that I've been crawling
I know that I've been falling
Into your dreamImagine no more tears
Dissolving all your fears
With tooth and claw we fight
Into this endless nightYeah, lately
I know that I've been crawling
I know that I've been falling
Into your dreamI saw my tears in your eyes
You saw your tears in mine
We watched it burn togetherI saw my fears in your eyes
You saw your fear in mine
We watched it burn together
Watched it burnBurn, yeah, burn
Watched it burn, burn, yeah, burn
Watched it burn, burn, watched it burn
Watched it burn, burn, watched it burnAll is forgiven
