

Strange

Bouwakanja

When everyone was doing drugs, we were just doing love
A stranger said you're strange like me
Ana, our dreams are coming true Don't tell me that a day will come when we dress like everyone

'cuz I can tell you're strange like me
Don't say the hour's growing late Don't say we should be going straight
'cuz I can tell you're strange like me
And dreams can still come true, and it's coming true for you
