

Angelina

Ray Charles

Angelina, why did you have to go?
It's hard enough alone, well you should know, ah baby
The scars you never showed me, your eyes that turned away
Angelina, to God for you I prayed Angelina, I often heard you weep, yeah
At times I stayed awake and watched you sleep, I did
Your innocence would move me, at times you've made me scared
Angelina, my love for you I cared, well baby I should Angelina, in silence you would speak, yeah
A simple touch from you and I grew weak, I did
You finally let me hold you the day before you died
Angelina, my angel in the sky, yes You finally let me hold you the day before you died
Angelina, Angelina, my angel in the sky, ah there
I love you baby
