

Lovin My Baby

Jonny Lang

I got my baby's love now
Know she's got mine
I got my baby's love now
Know she's got mine Well, I sit around and stare at her
Oh man, oh man, she sure look fine My baby's eyes are as clear as the bluest sky
My baby's eyes are as clear as the bluest sky
If the world were like my baby
The good Lord sure would be satisfied Looked at other women
Changed my mind
Compared to my baby
They're a dozen for a dime
