

I'm a Monster

Ours

Am I a bad guy? Am I a bad soul?

My eyes roll backward

My head fell forward

We want the vampires

They want the daylight

Undecided, if we will feel it All the lies and fantasies, I picked to deny what is right

As the lawyers lie down to the sound of a broken man clinging

To the legs of a butterfly

We live to see our children die

Turn to the bright to describe what we never will find

I'm a monster singin' through the side of a left eye And I will pay for

And I will pay for

I couldn't have her

I couldn't save her

If I could grab on

I'd pull the weight, love All the lies and fantasies I picked to deny what is right

As the lawyers lie down to the sound of a broken man clinging

To the legs of a butterfly, of a butterfly

We live to see our children die

Turn to the light to describe what we never will find

I'm a vampire clinging to the sounds for a fast high All the lies and fantasies I picked to describe what is right

As the lawyers lie down to the sound of a broken man clinging

To the legs of a butterfly

I live to see our children die

Turn to the bright to describe what we never will find

I'm a monster singin' through the side of a left eye
