Hard to Be Yourself

Satanic Surfers

Where will we end if the people keep livin' lies
We'll never stop 'til we end our own demise
What can one do in this world of today
If people keep laughing why must I turn awayIt's hard to be yourselfIn a world full of assholes
It's hard to make a stand
There's always someone better
So you'll never stand a chanceWhat can one do in this world of today
The world's evolution is going the wrong way
Bla Bla Bla
It's hard to be yourselfIn a world full of assholes
It's hard to make a stand
There's always someone better
So you'll never stand a chanceWhere will we end if the people keep livin' lies
We'll never stop 'til we end our own demise
What can one do in this world of today
If people keep laughing why must I turn awayIt's hard to be yourselfIn a world full of assholes
It's hard to make a stand
So you'll never stand a chance
