Travesty

She Screams Remedy

Sit with your plastic smile
Surrounded in the bars you made(the bars you made)
Waiting for someone to save you
But you'll never change, you'll never changeTime and time again you let them tell you, who you would be
Your shallow eyes are the reason you no longer see
This is the last time (this is the last time)
Your whole life is a travestySit with you plastic smile
Surrounded in the bars you made(the bars you made)
The bars you made
Waiting for someone to save you
But you'll never change, you'll never changeYou're telling your story, will you be able Able to feel real
You're digging your grave so burn your casket (burn your casket)
This is the last time (this is the last time)
Your whole life is a travestySit with your plastic smile
Surrounded in the bars you made (the bars you made)
Waiting for someone to save you
But you'll never change, you'll never changeWho am I today
You allowed them to build you while preaching
IndividualityTell me now what do you see
They tore it away
Will I find out the real me
And you wont feel this again
Tell me now what do you see
Dont let them let you
Fade

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/