

No Place Like Home (feat. Jones)

HONNE

[Verse 1: Andy of HONNE]

I've been lost before
But never thought weak
On the 42nd floor of this apartment suite
I'm confined between these walls
Of 600 feet
I've been lost I've been lost before
I don't wanna repeat[Chorus: Andy of HONNE]
And it's 2AM in Tokyo
Yeah I'm fucking far from my own home
And I'm tired of this hotel room
And the building site it backs onto
Oh these noises I don't recognise
And lights too bright for you and I
It's not hard for me to feel alone

And I have heard there really is no place like home[Verse 2: JONES]

I've been lost before
But never on these streets
I'd tell you how I felt
But I'm too scared to speak
I can't get this straight line
I wish I could see
I've been lost I've been lost before
I don't wanna repeat[Chorus: Andy of HONNE & JONES]
And it's 2AM in Tokyo
And I'm way too far from my own home
And I'm tired of this hotel room
And the building site it backs onto
Oh these noises I don't recognise
And lights too bright for you and I
It's not hard for one to feel alone
No and I have heard there really is no place like home
