Hello Conscience

The Zutons

'Cause it's alright
To go out at night and forget who you are
Alright
Then it's up in the morning and back to the start

Hello conscience how do you do
I've come a long way to talk with you
You've been causing chaos for much too long
And these mixed emotions are much too strong
I hear you got a problem with the way I am
But loneliness never seems to understand
Every time I hear the fizzing of my cup
I hold my head high and say good luck

I've got a couple of friends that are dying to meet you
They're going to be in town for a little while
So if you come after me
They're gonna steal your sight so you can't see
So relax and sit back instead

'Cause it's alright
To go out at night and forget who you are
Alright
Then it's up in the morning and back to the start

It's alright
To go out at night and forget who you are
Alright
Then it's up in the morning and back to the start

Hello sunshine how are things going
You come up everyday but I'm never showing
I guess me and you don't get along
With nothing in common, nothing's wrong

I spend a lot of time in the big white room
Down in the cellar I'll be drinking soon
I can't help sleeping through the sunny day
Tired in bed but that's OK

I've got a couple of friends that are dying to meet you
They're going to be in town for a little while
So if you come after me
They're gonna steal your sight so you can't see
So relax and sit back instead

'Cause it's alright
To go out at night and forget who you are
Alright
Then it's up in the morning and back to the start

It's alright
To go out at night and forget who you are
Alright
Then it's up in the morning and back to the start

Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright

Good timing

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by PAYNE, SEAN FRANCIS CALEB/MCCABE, DAVID ALAN Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/