Down Below

Creeper

I once saw a girl who had a heart so blue,
And she smoked and drank about as much as you.
And I was hoping baby I'd get us home,
Whilst the night's still young under this wind and moon.I keep thinking about the way we once were,
I keep thinking about his fingers running through your hair.
What goes on in the room when I'm not there.Down below,
I'll meet you in the river down below.I once saw a girl who looked a lot like you,
Hair was storm cloud black, her eyes were raindrop blue.
And all I wanted baby was to hold you
Before the stranger comes under this wind and moon.'Cause Down below,
He'll meet you in the river down below.
Down below,
He'll meet you in the river down below.Let me take you down.And he'll come to see you, In the window of your home.
To take you to the river... Down below.
And he'll come to see you, In the window of your home.
To take you to the river... Down below.
And he'll come to see you, In the window of your home.
To take you to the river... Down below.Down below,
He'll meet you in the river down below.
Down below,
He'll meet you in the river down below.
Down below,
He'll meet you in the river down below.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/