High

Corinne Bailey Rae

I know youâ€™re probably expecting some poetic words
About love and the sun and the Universe
But I donâ€™t need to explain
I donâ€™t have to describe this
I hardly mention your name when Iâ€™m out with my friends
While they go over and over their dates again
They can see in my eyes
They can tell by my smile

Cause when I met you I was frozen
Nothing left my heart was broken
You came along
Just like the perfect song

My darling you
You make me do everything differently
Your love is taking me high as the moon
Donâ€™t want to move
â€˜cause I donâ€™t want to break the spell

Now that youâ€™re mine
Iâ€™m staying quiet
â€˜cause my words are useless
They only confuse us
So why even try
When itâ€™s so right
And I donâ€™t want to break the spell

I know they probably want me to open the door
And tell it all to the world like Iâ€™ve done before
But itâ€™s the things that you do
When thereâ€™s nobody watching

Shall we turn off our phones Shall we close all the curtains â€˜cause I donâ€™t really feel like coming out tonight?

Can't we hide from the world
All alone itâ€™s so perfect

â€˜cause when I met you I was frozen
Nothing left my heart was broken
You can along and brightened up my world

My darling you
You make me do everything differently
Your love is taking me high as the moon
Donâ€™t want to move
â€˜cause I donâ€™t want to break the spell

Now that youâ€™re mine
Iâ€™m staying quiet
â€˜cause my words are useless
They only confuse us
So why even try
When itâ€™s so right
And I donâ€™t want to break the spell

Now Iâ€™m in a daze
Lost in time a space
And this canâ€™t be replaced
I donâ€™t want to break it
This is something new
A beautiful cocoon
That weâ€™ve come into

My darling you
You make me do everything differently
Your love is taking me high as the moon
Donâ€™t want to move
â€˜cause I donâ€™t want to break the spell

Now that youâ€™re mine
Iâ€™m staying quiet
â€˜cause my words are useless
They only confuse us
So why even try
When itâ€™s so right
And I donâ€™t want to break the spell
