Use Me

Cupid and the Romantics

Sedate me
Salacious, salty, and sweet
I'm overwhelmed by tasty thoughts of you
Day dream
My body waving the white flag
Take me (yea babe)
Now I know I'm sober
It's just so profound
That every wall I built up
Has come crashing down
Don't the waves pull the sand
Don't the moon pull the tide (babe)
I love you
Use me (yeah)
Wanna give you control
With the lights off
If I could just let go
Forgive me, it's the very first time
And I'm nervous
Can I trust you?
