

A Good One

So many lonely people
Searching for true love
That one in a million
Can be so hard to find
Don't know why I couldn't see it
When she was mine

'Cause I had a good one
Beautiful Woman
With more love than I could imagine
Let it slip right through my hands
Wasting time, never making plans
And losing her is my greatest loss
Even though I know she's better off
With a new life that she's found
Next time I'll know what to do
Should a good one come around.

Oh, we could sit around and talk all day
About what could have been
What should have been
But what gets me the most
Is I might not ever have the chance again

'Cause I had a good one
Beautiful Woman
With more love than I could imagine
Let it slip right through my hands
Wasting time, never making plans
And losing her is my greatest loss
Even though I know she's better off
With a new life that she's found
Next time I'll know what to do
Should a good one come around.

Oh God, please
Let a good one come around.
