

A Little More Work

Kira Isabella

Every morning you show up at the farm
Tattoo on either arm
And give my daddy 8 long hours
I can see you steal a glance
Every single chance, hoping ill be at my window
The farm door sticks and the hay is cut
The sun is set and you're packing up
And you think i'll jump right in your truck
You're just getting started
You still got a little more work to do
Before you sweep me off my boots
Sorry I don't fall that easy
I need more than a hey there baby
Don't think for a minute you'll play me
Tell you right now boy you're have to beg for a kiss or two
You still got a little more work to do
I admit when you take off your shirt
And get down in the dirt
It's hard for me to look away
But I wanna know there's more than that
Underneath that baseball cap, so show me at the end of the day
When you're finished all my daddy's chores
And you come knocking at my door
Be ready to work a whole lot more
You're just getting started
You still got a little more work to do
Before you sweep me off my boots
Sorry I don't fall that easy
I need more than a hey there baby
Don't think for a minute you'll play me
Tell you right now boy you're have to beg for a kiss or two
You still got a little more work to do
Yeah you still got a little more work to do
You still got a little more work to do
Before you sweep me off my boots
Sorry I don't fall that easy
I need more than a hey there baby
Don't think for a minute you'll play me
Tell you right now boy you're have to beg for a kiss or two
You still got a little more work to do
You still got a little more work to do
I need more ,more than a hey there baby
Don't think for a minute you'll play me
Tell you right now boy you're have to beg for a kiss or two
You still got a little more work to do, You still got a little more work to do
