

The Outpost

The Purrs

I have been where silence dwell
Tried to keep you far away
I feel something's still around
It has been kept from us All illusions are just fractions
Of the fears that they stole from your mind I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahh
All illusions seems so real
I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahh
It's the outpost of my mind When the darkness came you saw
Now I share what you believe
You are in my silent room
Now I understand it All illusions were just fractions
Of the fears you carried all the way Now you touch what I have reached
You cannot hold them back aahh
All illusions seems so real
Now you touch what I have reached
You cannot hold them back aahh
It's the outpost of our minds I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahhh
All illusions seems so real
I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahh
It's the outpost of my mind
